

College of Arts and Humanities
Academic Learning Compacts

Film - B.F.A.

Discipline Specific Knowledge, Skills, Behavior and Values

1. Students will create visual works that apply a variety of design principles.
2. Students will create visual works that show competent technical skills.
3. Students will express themselves using pertinent media specific vocabulary.
4. Students will create films that demonstrate creativity.
5. Students will create visual works that show metacognitive thinking.
6. Students will create visual works that integrate advanced concepts/theories.
7. Students will establish how their work fits into and benefits from historical context.
8. Students will articulate the value of their creative practice to the community.

Critical Thinking

1. Students will create visual works that apply a variety of design principles.
2. Students will create visual works that show competent technical skills.
3. Students will express themselves using pertinent media specific vocabulary.
4. Students will create films that demonstrate creativity.
5. Students will create visual works that show metacognitive thinking.
6. Students will create visual works that integrate advanced concepts/theories.
7. Students will establish how their work fits into and benefits from historical context.
8. Students will articulate the value of their creative practice to the community.

Communication

1. Students will create visual works that apply a variety of design principles.
2. Students will create visual works that show competent technical skills.

3. Students will express themselves using pertinent media specific vocabulary.
4. Students will create films that demonstrate creativity.
5. Students will create visual works that show metacognitive thinking.
6. Students will create visual works that integrate advanced concepts/theories.
7. Students will establish how their work fits into and benefits from historical context.
8. Students will articulate the value of their creative practice to the community.

Assessment of Film - B.F.A. Outcomes

These outcomes will be assessed using a variety of assessment methods, including:

- Tests
- Production notebook
- Observations
- Projects
- Critiques