COMMUNICATION AND CONFLICT

UNIVERSITY OF CENTRAL FLORIDA

Internship

Internships provide students valuable applied experience and may lead to post-graduation employment opportunities. Please remember you are representing UCF, the Nicholson School of Communication and Media, and the communication program during your internship. Therefore, you are expected to perform your duties in a capable and professional manner. Sub-par internship performance can result in a denial of credit for your internship. Each intern is an ambassador for the Nicholson School of Communication and Media. Please gauge your behavior accordingly.

Withdrawing from an Internship: If unforeseen circumstances require the termination of an internship, the faculty supervisor should be immediately informed and the university process for a class withdrawal should be used. Should any problems arise during the internship, either the employer or the intern should notify the faculty supervisor immediately.

How to find an Internship

The Nicholson School of Communication and Media (NSCM) offers a wide variety of resources to help you look for an internship. These resources include but are not limited to:

- UCF Handshake <https://csel.ucf.edu/>
- Intern Pursuit (Fall/Spring)
- NSCM Student Newsletter (sent to your Knights email each month)
- UCF Internship & Co-op Fair <https://explearning.ucf.edu/>

Should you decide to find an employer on your own, confirm with the internship coordinator that the internship can be registered for credit through the Nicholson School of Communication and Media.

Eligibility

- Only Communication BA and Communication & Conflict BA majors and Strategic Communication minors are eligible for communication internships (COM 4941)
- To qualify for internship credit, students must have completed at least 3 previous communication and media studies courses and be 3000 or 4000-level courses. Some courses such as STA 2014, SPC 1608, and ENC 3250 do not establish internship eligibility.
- Students must have a minimum 2.0 UCF and Major GPA's to be eligible to register for an internship.
- Internships must be communication-related. While communication may be defined in a broad and general way, all internships must employ some form of effective oral and/or written communication and help the student achieve career goals.

All students who plan to enroll their internship for credit must enroll their internship with the current internship coordinator:

Prof. Steve Neel      steven.neel@ucf.edu.

Credit Hours

Credits Allowed: Internships are enrolled for a maximum of 3-credit hours in one semester. A second internship for 3-credit hours may be enrolled for general elective credit.

Credit Hour to Hours on the Job Formula: Students are required to work a minimum of 3 hours per week (average) for each hour of internship credit. Therefore, a 3-credit internship requires a minimum of 9 hours work per week. Students who register for internships during the summer "C" term must average 4 hours per week of work for each hour of credit because of the abbreviated length of the summer term.

Grading Procedures

Internships are graded as S/U—Satisfactory or Unsatisfactory—and not by letter grade.

Internship Final Program: Final reports typically consist of (1) a brief letter of evaluation from your employer and (2) a brief report describing duties, activities and knowledge acquired during the internship. The internship coordinator may require additional materials such as journals, etc.

Internship final reports for your faculty advisor are due no later than the last day of regular classes. Please note that final reports cannot be turned in during the final exam week. It is the prerogative of your advisor to award a grade of "U" for late reports.

Registration

You cannot register yourself. There are multiple steps to register an internship.

Step 1: Complete the internship registration form (last page of packet). Complete the student portion.

Step 2: Forward the form to your internship employer, have them complete the employer approval of internship section. Then forward it to the internship coordinator, who will supervise your internship. NASSC will not sign off on your internship registration form without all of the required signatures.

Step 3: After you have the entire form completed, forward the form to NSCM Advising by emailing nassc@ucf.edu.

Step 4: NSCM Advising will confirm the form is completed and that you are academically eligible for the internship. As long as there are no holds on your account and you are not attempting to enroll in more than 17 hours in fall/spring or 14 hours in summer, the College of Sciences will then enroll in the internship course.

Deadline: Completed forms must be emailed to NSCM Advising before the registration deadline. Regular Registration is typically defined by the university as the business day prior to the start of the Add/Drop period. Please consult the current UCF academic calendar at <https://www.ucf.edu/services/s/academic-calendar/> for specific dates.

Late Registration Fee: UCF policy states that students who are not enrolled in any courses and who register for the first time (meaning that you did not enroll in any courses prior to add/drop week) during Late Registration and Add/Drop period will be assessed a Late Registration Fee of $100. Internship registration should be completed prior to the start of Add/Drop to avoid the late fee. All registration activity must be completed by 11:59 p.m. on the last day of Late Registration and Add deadline. No late adds or drops will be permitted. This may not apply to you if you are enrolled in courses before add/drop begins.

You may contact NASSC with any questions at (407) 823-2681.
